

I am Lynn Turner and my business name is Cake & Catwalk.

Nothing to do with baking cakes but all about fashion although that's not the whole story.

I have been a window dresser for Debenhams, a catwalk and photographic model, a sales representative, a secretary and PA for a builders merchants, I have been a dance & fitness teacher and had my own dance studio and dance troupe and ran my own curtain and interiors business.

I've been a fund raiser and an event organiser, I helped to raise the £8 million to build Danceeast. I worked for 12 years for Archant and helped to launch Suffolk Magazine along with being a merchandiser and a PR and promotions and sales manager. I have organised and choreographed endless fashion shows, run networking groups, mentored young people and had my own retail shop. Cake & Catwalk.

I have built my own website have an online shop. I have over 1600 followers on my social media platforms, Facebook and Instagram and make my own videos and produce my own posts.

I now have my jewellery outlet at Dedham Arts & Craft centre and a rail of my latest clothing at Studio Flex Nacton and have a regular Pop Up days at my house and do talks and demonstrations for ladies groups. I also teach a dance class once a week and am the co-ordinator for St Matthews Community Top Up Shop providing bags of food for over 100 people each week.
